By Request of the *****

A Bill for an Act entitled: "An Act establishing requirements for crisis response services in the developmental disabilities system; extending rulemaking authority; and providing an effective date."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Crisis response services -- department and provider responsibilities. (1) The department shall establish a crisis response program for providers of community developmental disabilities services to assist providers in preventing and intervening in situations that place persons with developmental disabilities at risk of incarceration, hospitalization, civil commitment, or loss of the person's placement in community services.

(2) The crisis response program shall consist of:

(a) a preventive level of response that involves training providers of community services in methods the providers can use to identify and prevent potential crisis situations and to respond to crisis situations in their initial stages before the situation escalates in a manner that requires a higher level of intervention;

(b) an intermediate level of response that involves direct services in a person's community placement for a person who is in or approaching a crisis situation if the situation requires intervention; and

(c) an advanced level of response that involves the provision of crisis support services by providers who are qualified to meet the needs of persons experiencing crisis situations when the services must be provided outside of the person's current community placement. A provider offering crisis support services at this level must receive an enhanced reimbursement rate that reflects the higher level of support being provided to the person in crisis.

(3)(a) Providers shall contact the crisis response program for assistance when a person with developmental disabilities is in or approaching crisis and implement the suggestions made for crisis response.

(b) If the person needs the highest level of response, the department shall find an appropriate placement for the person if the provider is unable to offer the level of response needed to mitigate the crisis situation and maintain the person in the current placement.

(4) (a) A person offering training in crisis response or providing direct crisis response services must:

(i) be licensed in the practice of applied behavior analysis pursuant to Title 37, chapter 17; and

(ii) meet other requirements established by the department by rule.

(b) If a team of individuals is offering training under this section, at least one member of the team must meet the licensure requirements of Title 37, chapter 17.

(5) The department may provide the training and direct services offered at the preventive and intermediate levels of response or may contract for the services.

(6) In developing and carrying out the crisis response program, the department shall consult with and include other entities that respond to crisis situations involving persons with developmental disabilities, including but not limited to law enforcement agencies, hospitals, and mental health centers.

Section 2. Section 53-20-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-204. Rules. (1) The department may adopt rules necessary for the proper administration of this part, including but not limited to:

(a) the training and other standards necessary to provide crisis support services as allowed under [section 1(2)(c); and

(b) the reimbursement rates for crisis support services provided pursuant [section 1(2)(c)].

(2) The department shall adopt rules in cooperation with the board of nursing under which a properly trained staff member of a facility providing services to persons with developmental disabilities under this part may assist and supervise a client of the facility in taking medication if the medication is usually self-administered and if a physician has prescribed the assistance."
